

RIGHT HERE IN IT ALL

By: John Gustin

VERSE 1

In the rush of a Monday morning
With a screen lighting up my face
You're the calm in the constant scrolling
You're the truth in the noise I chase
I forget that the King of heaven
Walks the same floor under my feet
Every hallway, every moment
Is a place where You can meet

PRE-CHORUS

Open my eyes again
Show me the wonder I'm living in

CHORUS

You are holy, holy
Right here right now
Heaven's closer than I ever dreamed somehow
High and lifted, still You hear me when I call
You are holy right here in it all

In the quiet of a heavy evening
When the questions won't go away
You're still there in the hidden grieving
You don't rush to fix or change
You're the Lord over fear and failure
Still You sit with me in doubt
Every tear and every silence
Is a place You're meeting me now

BRIDGE

You are holy in the stillness
You are holy in the storm
You are holy when I'm broken
You are holy when I'm whole
High above my understanding
Closer than my every breath
Every moment sings Your glory
Every heartbeat finds You there

TAG

High and lifted, still You hear me when I call
You are holy right here in it all
